

FILM SCREENING

“The Flat”

*A documentary by Arnon Goldfinger
(2011)*

29 October 2015 – 7pm | Goethe-Institut London, 50 Princes Gate Exhibition Road

The personal documentary accompanies film maker Arnon Goldfinger’s family during the process of sorting out the old apartment of their deceased grandmother in Tel Aviv. They discover old letters documenting the grandparents’ friendship to a German couple of high-ranked Nazis. Connecting personal and public history, “The Flat” highlights the importance of a continuous and collective reflection of the past.

Following the screening there will be the opportunity for a special Q&A session with filmmaker Arnon Goldfinger, chaired by Dr Daniel Wildmann, Leo Baeck Institute London/ Queen Mary, University of London.

On the occasion of the 50th anniversary of the resumption of German-Israeli diplomatic relations, the German Embassy London is joining hands with the Israeli Embassy London and the Goethe-Institut London for a very special evening.

Due to limited seating, please register with the Goethe-Institut beforehand: (info@london.goethe.org; subject line: The Flat, 29 October)

